News Summary

INTERNATIONAL A3-13

House Votes to Expand Military Ties with Taiwan

The House voted overwhelmingly to expand military ties between Taiwan and the United States, a move that China and the Clinton administration warned could exacerbate regional tensions and jeopardize a landmark trade agreement.

Austrian Coalition Forms

The anti-immigrant Freedom Party of Jörg Haider and the People's Party, ignoring threats of diplomatic isolation by the European Union and the United States, said they would form a government.

Chechen Rebels Leave Capital

Separatist rebels said they were abandoning Grozny and would carry out attacks on Russian forces from the mountains and countryside.

Russian Leader Drops By

Acting President Vladimir V. Putin made a surprise appearance at a Middle East conference in Moscow attended by Secretary of State Madeleine K. Albright. Mr. Putin used the occasion to deliver his first foreign policy statement, making a pointed reference to the Clinton administration's desire to modify the major arms control treaty between the United States and Russia.

Trying to Save Ulster Peace

Britain, Ireland and the United States struggled to preserve the power-sharing government in Belfast after David Trimble, the first minister of the Northern Ireland Assembly, said shutting down the two-month-old government was inevitable. The crisis developed when the I.R.A. signaled its unwillingness to begin dis-

McCain Ramps Over Bush; Gore Edges Out Bradley

Senator John McCain trounced Gov. George W. Bush in the New Hampshire Republican primary, defeating him by a margin far wider than anyone in any other campaign had anticipated.

Vice President Al Gore held off a stiff challenge by Bill Bradley, but the narrow result seemed to point to a long, contentious fight for the Democratic presidential nomination.

Sensitivity Training for Military

Every member of the armed forces will have to undergo training by the end of the year to prevent anti-gay harassment, the Pentagon said, acknowledging that its "don't ask, don't tell, don't harass" policy was poorly understood in the ranks.

Defending C.I.A. Inquiry

The director of central intelligence, George J. Tenet, left, responding to reports about the handling of an internal inquiry involving a predecessor, John M. Deutch, said he took "decisive action" after receiving a finding that Mr. Deutch had mishandled classified documents.

Early Findings on Jet Crash

The Alaska Airlines MD-83 jet that plunged into the Pacific while trying to make an emergency landing at Los Angeles appears to have suffered a progressive failure of a control system at the tail that controls how the plane pitches up or down, according to a sketchy chronology by a

Biracial Jury Is Chosen In Diallo Murder Trial

Four blacks and eight whites were impaneled as the jury that will hear the case against four white New York City police officers accused of murdering Amadou Diallo, a black African immigrant who was unarmed, in a hail of bullets.

Judge Keeps Forbes on Ballot

A federal judge forced the Republican Party on Long Island to drop its effort to put Steve Forbes off the ballot and indicated that he would soon allow Senator John McCain to qualify across New York State.

Putting Sprinklers in Dorms

A New Jersey lawmaker said the Legislature would help pay to put sprinklers in every college dormitory, which could cost $300 million.

BUSINESS DAY C1-30

Battling for Legal Talent

Some of the nation's leading law firms, trying to attract and retain top talent who may be tempted by the lure of Internet companies, have raised pay for their associates by as much as 50 percent in the past week. The increases will let first-year associates earn up to $160,000 a year, depending on year-end bonuses.

Clinton on the Economy

President Clinton said he was concerned about the growing trade deficit and about debt loads being carried by individuals and businesses, but that his worry was tempered by the strength that the economy derives from the budget surplus.

New Boss for G.M.

The General Motors Corporation is expected to announce on Wednesday that it will promote its president, G. Richard Wagoner Jr., to chief executive as John F. Smith Jr. relinquishes that job.
